

10/20/09, Clinton, New Jersey

Atkins International Associates, Inc. has a part time corporate training position open.

- Native English speaker with strong oral and written English language skills
- Previous corporate employment experience
- Previous teaching or training experience with adults
- Available between 8:30am and 5:00pm, Monday-Friday (classes are scheduled during this time, with some flexibility week to week)
- Computer skills (email, presentations, online research)
- Experience living (for more than 3 months) outside the United States
- Experience working with non-native English speakers
- Cross-cultural or diversity training experience
- Must be willing to travel to key client accounts in Bridgewater, Newark and Parsippany, NJ

If you are interested in applying for this position, please be sure your background matches the requirements and complete our online application at www.atkinsinternational.com/workwithus.asp.

Once the application is complete (or in case you have already completed the application), please send an email to Audrey Miller at audrey.miller@atkinsinternational.com with your CV attached.